

Introductions

Principal report:

- Comprehensive planning committee
  - New Website that is easy to find with all of the minutes, summaries, feedback, and community input events
  - Addresses anything that comes in from social media as well as other places
  - Timeline is set in stone: may will be the criteria vote, fall will apply criteria and propose scenarios in Oct after the oct count
    - Oct/Nov will vote on the plan
    - 6 months to work on the plan
    - Fast turn around
- CMAS and testing
- Field day last week of May
- Extra field trips
  - 3,4,5 going to see Shrek the musical at Boltz
- Staffing is completed
  - 2 tracks k-5
  - Reduced the instructional coach
  - 1 K parapro
    - Common and what most of the buildings do
    - If K grows, the school can petition to hire another para pro
  - Specials:
    - Media will be GT/Enrichment and Media at 100%
    - Art will be 80%
    - Music and PE will be 60%
    - Kids will have specials every day

Budget:

Current budget:

Killing the 5th grade gift

Will have about $15K in the bank at the end of the year

Proposed budget of $19,500

Actuals for previous years is close

Added budget for the Battle of Books books to ensure they books are covered

Scholastic points: still have a bunch and can start to think about how to use them down

Will vote on the proposed budget next year

President report:

4/20 Rally5 event: 25% of revenue will go back to the school have to mention the school

Will not move forward with birdcall unless we need to next year

Book fair:

After school and during the family night

Next day at breakfast bonanza:

Inside: do not want the food in the media center with the books

Put the food in the outdoor classroom and send families out to the playground after purchasing books

Teacher appreciation

Week of May 4th

Monday: Stock the Fridge (drinks: bai, starbucks Dr. Pepper) plan for 55 people

Tuesday: Lunch- kristin

Wednesday: Snacks- dutchess team room

Thursday: Lunch- Fuzzy PTO

Friday: Donuts (Human bean and King Sooper) and Coffee

Raffle and donation things